In Loving Memory of

Angela "Nikki" Nicole "Strauser" Royer
(September 9, 1979 - May 25, 2006)

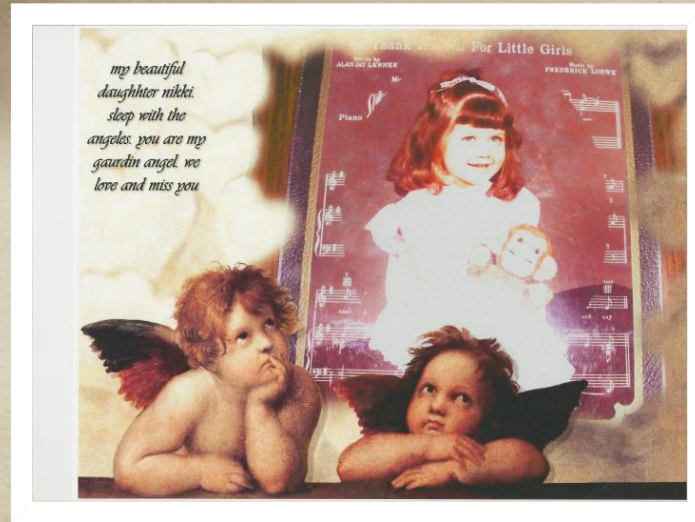

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Daughter: Angela "Nikki" "Strauser" Royer who was born in United States on September 4, 1979 and passed away on May 25, 2006. You will live forever in our memories and hearts. We MISS YOU & WE LOVE YOU, You always are in our HEARTS & Thoughts everyday!

The background of the entire image is a soft, textured, sepia-toned wash. In the upper right quadrant, two roses are depicted in a similar sepia tone, appearing as if they are gently floating or resting on the surface. The roses are detailed, showing the layers of petals and the central spiral of the buds. The overall mood is romantic and nostalgic.

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is a smaller, tighter bud, while the one on the right is a larger, more open flower with many layers of petals. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white color, making them stand out against the darker background. The overall aesthetic is soft and elegant.

Condolences

from the deepest of our hearts...

My deepest condolences. May these few words from the Holy Scriptures bring you comfort in your time of grief...

John 11:32-45

32 And so Mary, when she arrived where Jesus was and caught sight of him, fell at his feet, saying to him: “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” 33 Jesus, therefore, when he saw her weeping and the Jews that came with her weeping, groaned in the spirit and became troubled; 34 and he said: “Where have YOU laid him?” They said to him: “Lord, come and see.” 35 Jesus gave way to tears. 36 Therefore the Jews began to say: “See, what affection he used to have for him!” 37 But some of them said: “Was not this [man] that opened the eyes of the blind man able to prevent this one from dying?”

38 Hence Jesus, after groaning again within himself, came to the memorial tomb. It was, in fact, a cave, and a stone was lying against it. 39 Jesus said: “TAKE the stone away.” Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to him: “Lord, by now he must smell, for it is four days.” 40 Jesus said to her: “Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?” 41 Therefore they took the stone away. Now Jesus raised his eyes heavenward and said: “Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 True, I knew that you always hear me; but on account of the crowd standing around I spoke, in order that they might believe that you sent me forth.” 43 And when he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: “Laz’arus, come on out!” 44 The [man] that had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings, and his countenance was bound about with a cloth. Jesus said to them: “Loose him and let him go.”

45 Therefore many of the Jews that had come to Mary and that beheld what he did put faith in him;

The one on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white tone, making them stand out against the darker background.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

NIKKI, Your Dad & Mom want to say Merry Christmas & Happy New Year. We are sad that you aren't here with us but I know you are here in spirit. I know you are spending Christmas with GOD & singing Christmas Carols. You have Kennedae with you again. I know how much you love her. It is so hard on the Holidays without you but I know Nikki you are happy with GOD. Remember how much we love & miss you always. Sleep with the ANGELS. You are with us in our hearts. Rest iIN PEACE MY BEAUTIFUL DAUGHTER.

MERRY CHRISTMAS NIKKI

I don't know where to begin. I was very lucky to grow up around her. I remember when I was a kid I always wanted to do what "Aunt Nikki" was doing. Always wanting to play with her, go everywhere she went, and be just like her. What can I say she was the greatest Aunt! As I grew up she was always there for me. She always knew what to say to make me feel better. I could always go to her for advice about things you could talk to anyone else about. Still can't believe she is gone & don't understand why her...still makes me mad till this day. I guess that is life and god must have had bigger plans for her. I miss her more than you could ever know. I will always love & never forget her.

aunt cheryl

my favorite memory of nikki was when we went to gettsburg on a field trip with b.h.m.c. how much fun we had. you were always my special angel (i love you & miss you)

Oh I have sooooo many memories of Nikki ! From the time we were in the third grade we were always together. I think I spent the night at her house every weekend and almost everyday in the summer. We were what true best friend were! I wish we would have had more time to spend together in our adult life. Nikki was, as Barb said, very caring. She always thought of others before herself. I miss her everyday. I think about the times when we use to cruise Huntingdon when we were able to drive. But, when we didn't have a license good old Norma would drive us around:) My favorite memory has to be the time we burned the carpet in the dinning room. Then, we sat on it thinking we could cover it..... I guess we never thought that at some point we would have to get up !! LOL !

Love You Nik !

your wishes. I am so glad you got married to Jason whom you loved so very much. I want you know you will never be forgotten.

My daughter NIKKI in HEAVEN. When you were born it was the happiest day of your dad & my life. We were so glad you were are daughter. Nikki you were so loving and kind and you would do anything for anyone. You were here with us for such a very short time. But every minute you were here with us made us so happy. I just wish I could have one more wish that you could be here with us. Our love for you will never die and you will always be with us. We will carry you in our hearts always. I want you to know you were a very special daughter. We are keeping your memories alive. You were so very happy when you got married. That was one of

As i think of Nikki the one thing that always comes to mind is , her love for her family . I have never known anyone who was as sweet n thoughtful as she was . nikki always thought of others never of herself she was truely a blessing from god ! I will always look to the clouds in hopes that she is watching over all that she loved ! life has changed so much since she has been gone , but my love n respect for her will never change .

My loving daughter NIKKI ROYER

She was a loving, sweet and a kind person. She loved her dogs, baby, brody, kasey & Kennedae like they were her own children. Nikki Had a wish that came true for her. She wanted to get married to Jason Royer whom she loved very much. Nikki has been with Jason since high school. they got married on March 12, 2006. She always wanted to visit the Baltimore National Aquarium, Which she did get to go on May 10, 2006. She passed away May 25, 2006. She was so faithful to her husband. He meant the world to her. Nikki wanted children it it was to much of a danger to her health. She has been battling (LUPUS) since high school. Suffered with alot of pain. Nikki Graduated from the Huntingdon Area High School in the year of 1998, She was so tickled that her and her sister went and picked up her New Car which she got for Graduation, Nikki also went to (Dubois Business College) but the LUPUS overcame her and yet again took another thing away from her. She was a great aunt to her nieces & nephews. They miss her dearly. Nikki you can rest in peace now with no more pain. Your DAD & MOM will always LOVE & MISS YOU so much and forever!!! Sleep with he Angels. You are forever in our hearts.

WE LOVE AND MISS YOU DEARLY.

Greatly Missed

A Mother's Touch, A Mother's Kiss,
A Grieving Mother, You're Greatly Missed.

A Empty House, An Empty Chair,
A Mother's Love, No Longer There.

A Broken Heart, Tear Filled Eye,
Another Soul to Fill The Sky.

Many Memories In My Mind,
Some I Laugh, Some I Cry.

The Times We Shared, The Laughs We Had,
Things I Miss When I think Of You Daughter.

Realixing That's All I Have to Hold On Too,
Only Memories, Of What Once Was You.
Missing Your Laugh, I Will Never Again Hear,
That Is The Reality That Fills Me With So Much Fear.

No More Smiles On Your Face,
No More Warmth Of Your Embrace.
The Last Hug, The Last Kiss,
The Last, "Goodbye" Leaves M With One Wish.

To Have You Daughter Here Today.

Sadly Missed Your,

Mom & Dad
